different opinion on that. But I think that what we did was, we sustained an additional $30 million in cuts. And I think what we are moving to override are those that would be particularly devastating or particularly difficult on people. And I think that this is a fair compromise. I support the committee's plan. I think everything in there is justifiable, it makes sense, it's an additional $30 million in cuts and...and I just rise in support of it. I thank Senator Wehrbein for his work on that. I think he recognized that people wanted more cuts, and I think he's delivered on that. And I support it and urge you to do so as well. Thank you.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Engel.

SENATOR ENGEL: Mr. Speaker, members of the body, again, as Senator Bourne said, yesterday we found out people did want more cuts, so we had to go back to the drawing board. And it was very, very difficult because some of these cuts we made were very dear to my heart. And I think they're very, very important to the people in the state of Nebraska, especially to the students and scholarships and et cetera. But the thing is, we didn't agree on everything, but we did agree when it come out of committee that we would agree to...with this particular...what our final result was. So, therefore, I do support this...these reductions. Thank you.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Don Pederson.

SENATOR D. PEDERSON: Mr. Speaker, members of the Legislature, first of all, I would really like to thank both Senator Wickersham and Senator Kristensen for coming to our meeting last night. I think that they're taking their time to come and to manage to help us keep things in perspective, as far as dollars and procedure is concerned. But, I'm also very, very pleased with the way the Appropriations Committee approached this matter. It's very difficult to go through these items as we have in our regular session, and evaluate each of the programs, and then recommended that money go out to those programs because of the need in the state. But, last night we recognized that it would be appropriate for us to come through and to reevaluate in light of the Governor's veto, in respect to the Governor, but
